THE VALUE OF SELF CONTROL.

BY CHARLOTTE HOLSINGER.

Read at Dallas Society.

He who possesses self control, be he of high or low stature, be he found in the higher or lower walks of life, find him where you will, "he is master of the situation." One of our old true German authors tells us that "No one who cannot master himself is worthy to rule, and only he can rule."

Self-control is closely related to self-respect; if you would have others respect you, first learn to respect yourself.

It is an established truth in human affairs, that all cling to the stronger. If you would have men pay you homage, prove to them by every day action, that you are worthy their praise; words, however, will not suffice; too often we find that words, "Idle words take the place of honest deeds."

Jonathan's son when he called himself a "dead dog," dishonored his father and brought reproach upon the handiwork of his Creator.

Behold the man of Genius, with no trembling hand he grasps the brush, or turns the wheel, but with a firm and undaunting stroke the bright tints appear and the wheel whirls round and round.

If you would leave a monumental statute of your work behind you, ere you touch your implements feel the force of these words, "I can and by the help of God's grace I will." You hold your destiny in your own hands. Fate has nothing to do with you or yours. No greater mistake was ever made than to suppose that our future is mapped out for us at birth. Providence can and will assist. We destine our end. If man becomes a slave to intoxicating drink and lacks moral courage he is destined to become a drunkard. It is true that everything is controlled by law, but it is equally untrue that you have nothing to do with your circumstances. Is there that in your life which keeps you from living your ideal life? If it be a true ideal, cast all hindrances far from you. You have the power to do what you will. A due amount of self reliance is necessary for complete control, and when not abused gives originality to expression that otherwise could not easily be obtained.

In solitude you may enjoy gems of thought, but if you lack the self reliance that is required to intelligibly give them to the world, the cultivation of your mind is of little avail. They may be given to the world by proxy, and he who gives it by change of a word will gain the whole applause; at best, you stake your all, and receive little in return. There is a nobler incentive to living godly lives than that which we gain from the praise of our neighbors—the consciousness of having acted in accordance with the will of Him, who only lives a perfect life. We are in the world and cannot live apart from its inmates, and it is necessary for our success in life that we receive commendation from those with whom we associate. The experience of our literary giants has proven to us that association has had much to do with their present height. This should urge us to mingle with the intellectual and converse with those whom we are sure could elevate and refine us. And since our worth is measured by our capability to impart what we possess to others it is of importance that we read the best authors, think the purest thoughts, and at all times feel that we can yet advance and improve what we have gathered.

There is nothing so contemptible as the narrowminded man who inspires you with the thought—This one thing I know I will not be influenced by anything you or the world might prove to me. This is self-adoration and should be distinguished from self-control.

He who seeks to inspire others by his own words of superior intellect is disgusting and not only tarnishes his own fair name but oftentimes injures his friends. Knowledge like any other article of exchange is like other benefits which we enjoy in this life, and can only be accomplished by labor.

True we give commodity for commodity and unlike matters in metallic currency we should aim to have our giving exceed that which we receive. The assurance of this gives us self-reliance. He who would be wise, and especially he who would teach others should first learn self control.

A Perfect Woman.

Was there ever a eulogy on woman to rival Proverbs 31? A glory of enthusiasm flushes through a womanly being to find the Lord has made her a creature of power. Let her beware that the "heart of her husband doth safely trust in her, so that he shall have no need of spoil," and that "she will do him good and not evil, all the days of her life." How the Omniscient enlarges on the industry of the good woman, and the comfort and adorning she gathers into a household! What a brave perfection this woman of whom it is written by God's Spirit, "strength and honor are her clothing, and she shall rejoice in time to come. She openeth her mouth with wisdom; and in her tongue is the law of kindness. She looketh well to the ways of her household, and eateth not the bread of idleness. Her children arise up and call her blessed; her husband also and he praiseth her. Many daughters have done virtuously, but thou excellest them all." Thus much for woman in her usual lot of wife, but here follows a universal application: "Favor is deceitful, and beauty is vain; but a woman that feareth the Lord, she shall be praised. Give her the fruit of her hands, and let her own works praise her in the gates. Why should a feminine ever be dissatisfied with the sphere Providence assigns her? She may be feebler in physique and brain than man, but a subtle influence in hers he own not. Even if wanting in seeming force, as some love to represent her, let her take comfort, for "God hath chosen the weak things of the world to contound the things which are mighty."—Sunday Magazine.

Sweet Minded Women.

So great is the influence of a sweet minded woman on those around her that it is almost boundless. It is to her that friends come in seasons of sorrom and sickness for help and comfort; one soothing touch of her kindly hand works wonders in the feverish child; a few words let fall from her lips in the ear of a sorrowing sister do much to raise the load of griet that is bowing its victim down to the dust in anguish. The husband comes home worn out with the pressure of business, and feeling irritable with the world in general; but when he enters the cosy sitting room, and sees the blaze of the bright fire, and meets his wife's smiling face, he succumbs in a moment to the soothing influences which act as the balm of Gilead to his wounded spirits, that are wearied with the stern realities of life. The rough school boy flies in a rage from the taunts of his companions to find solace in his mother's smile; the little one, full of grief with her large trouble, finds a haven of rest on its mother's breast; and so one might go on with instance after instance of the influence that a sweet minded woman has in the social life with which she is connected. Beauty is an insignificant power when compared with her.

Lime in Baking Powder.

Prof. R. A. Witthaus, M. D., Medical University, Buffalo, N. Y., who is the highest authority, says that "Calcium Tartrate (improperly called Tartrate of Lime,) advertised as the lime found in Baking Powders is derived from the wines that produce Cream of Tratar. It is a constituent of the grape and other fruits, and is absolutely harmless.

The Boston Methodist Ministers' meeting, has adopted some rather significant resolutions, repudiating in the strongest terms the new and somewhat peculiar doctrine that the morality or immorality of a man's private life has nothing to do with his fitness for public life.

WARSAW, JEFFERSON CO., PA.

The swelling is all gone. I am as well and natural as I ever was before I was enlarged. I am delighted with Peruna. S. P. SHAFER.

My son is still improving in health. Your Peruna is just the thing for him. W. BAUER, St. Mary's, Pa.

The large chronic ulcers, of fifteen months' standing, are entirely healed. The swelling pain and itching have all subsided, the leg is healed, and I am perfectly well. Peruna is a wonderful remedy. W. M. GRIFFITH, Ashland, Ky.

If you desire health and to save money, ask your Druggist for Dr. Hartman's "Ills of Life."

Perpetual scolding does much harm and little good.

AN ONLY DAUGHTER CURED OF CONSUMPTION.

When death was hourly expected, all remedies having failed, and Dr. H. James was experimenting with the many herbs of calcutta he accidently made a preparation which cured his only child of Consumption. His child is now in this country, and enjoying the best of health. He has proved to the world that Consumption can be positively and permanently cured. The Doctor now gives this receipt free, only asking two 2-cent stamps to pay expenses. This herb also cures Night Sweats, Nausea at the Stomach, and will break up a fresh cold in twenty-four hours. Address Craddock and Co, 1032 Race St. Philadelphia, naming this paper.

It is much safer to think what we say than say what we think.

I. P. Dukehart,

Supt. of B. & O. R. R. Co.'s Hotels, (Conductor on the Balt. & Ohio Railroad for 28 years, and previously a Druggist) writes: "Cumberland, Md., Dec. 17, 1881: have used but one bottle of Peruna between myself and son. He had Diphtheretic Sore Throat, and is now well. As for myself it has entirely relieved the dullness in my head, which has been of long standing—the result of Chronic Malaria. I never took anything in my life that gave me such satisfaction. My wife is now taking it also." Ask your Druggist for the "Ills of Life," and how to cure them—a book.

As a News-paper it has no superior. It is INDEPENDENT in politics, presenting all political news free from partisan bias or coloring, and absolutely without fear or favor as to parties. It is, in the fullest sense, a FAMILY PAPER. Each issue contains several COMPLETED STORIES, a SERIAL STORY of absorbing interest, and a rich variety of condensed notes on Fashions, Art, Industries, Literature, Science, etc., etc. Its Market Quotations are complete and to be relied upon. WHAT OLD SUBSCRIBERS SAY

About the "Chicago Weekly News" when they renew their subscriptions.

William Cannons, Pontiac, Oakland County, Mich., says: "I think it is the best paper in America."

L. A. Welch, Sullivan, O., says: "It is better than many of the 52 papers."

James P. Malone, 239 St. Charles street, New Orleans, La., says: "In comparing your paper with others I receive, I must say yours, the CHICAGO WEEKLY NEWS, is good, better, best. I would sooner miss a meal than a number of the NEWS. It is the newspaper of the day. It is true to its name."

Alfred P. Foster, Woodhull, Henry County, Ill., says: "It is one of the cleanest papers published."

W. W. Rhodes, Adrian, Mich., says: "I don't want to miss a number. It is the best paper for news I have ever seen."

Peter Lansing, Setonia, Saunders County, Neb., says: "I like THE WEEKLY NEWS. It is full of readable and valuable news, and, although I am in receipt of nine weekly journals, I am constrained to adopt THE WEEKLY NEWS as No. 10, because of its non-partisan attitude in politics, giving me the ungarbled truth concerning the actions of all political parties."

M. E. Davenport, Palmyra, N. Y., says: "It is the cheapest and best paper I ever read."

Mrs. L. Schonan, Hannibal, Mo., says: "I like your paper very much. I get six other papers, but do not like them as well as THE WEEKLY NEWS."

W. R. Law, Mansfield, Tex., says: "I am highly pleased with the NEWS, for I get politics presented in it in such a way that I get both side of a question fairly set forth, which is utterly impossible to get in a strictly party journal of either side."

The above extracts are sufficient to show in what esteem the CHICAGO WEEKLY NEWS is held by its old subscribers.

Our special Clubbing Terms bring it within the reach of all. Specimen Copies may be seen at this office.
